DESCRIPTION

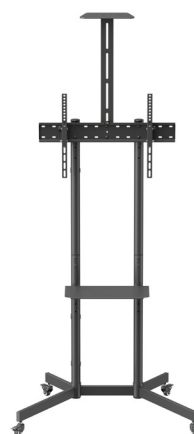

Designed for meeting rooms, educational establishments or reception areas, the NorStone Vision One is an economical steel TV stand that combines simplicity, robustness and flexibility.

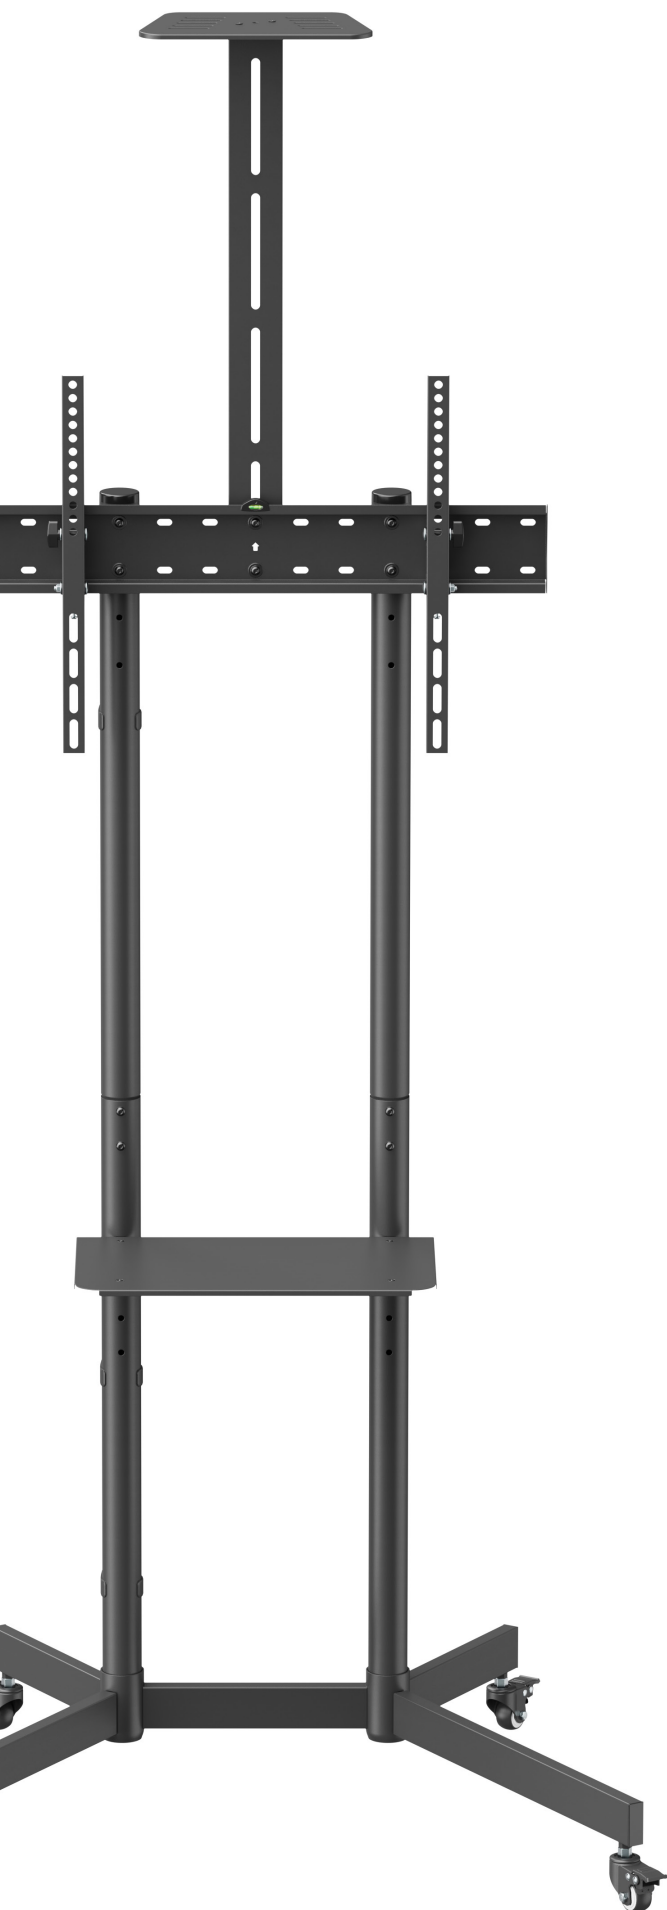

It accommodates screens up to 70" and 45 kg, is VESA compatible up to 600 x 400, and offers a personalised viewing experience thanks to its height-adjustable TV stand.

Equipped with a shelf for storing equipment and an adjustable top shelf for positioning a camera, Vision One can be used for all types of configuration, particularly video conferencing.

Its sturdy castors with brakes make it easy to move around and keep it stable, while its integrated clips provide clean, discreet cable management.

Efficient TV support, for seamless integration into all professional environments.
